

Prayer Walk Your Local School

Pray onsite at your school with insight!

- ✦ Lead kids to pray in specific areas in their school.
- ✦ Consider printing each location on labels, stick on index cards and add cards to “O” rings. Let kids carry them around the school and pray.
- ✦ Add your own great ideas and encourage kids to pray their own prayers.
- ✦ Edit for age-levels—this is just to get you started!

Possible Locations:

Flagpole

Thank you, God, for America. Thank you that we live in a country where we can worship You freely. Help us keep America strong by loving and obeying you. Protect and lead the men and women who serve this country. We know our citizenship is in heaven. And we can't wait to see Jesus.

School Offices

Dear Lord, give wisdom to the principal and other leadership in this school. We know they have been established by you and we respect them. Help them to know you and guide others according to the Bible. They make hard decisions for teachers and students. Help them be a good leader. Help them seek you and do what you say should be done.

Counselor's Office

Thank you, God, for the counselor(s) in this school. Comfort them today as they help so many students and families. Give them your wise ideas so they can guide people in ways that make you happy. Show them how to help keep students, staff, and families safe and how to help those who need something.

Individual Classrooms

Lord Jesus, teachers may be stressed because people don't behave. Help students do what is right. Help them learn all that is important and what they need for the future. Give them courage to ask questions and to know how to work hard. Make a way for teachers to know the best way to lead each student. Help teachers be a model of good works. Let how they teach show they can be trusted.

School Walls

Dear God, on the inside and outside of these school walls, let us see and feel your peace. Students may be hurting because of things at home or at school. Use other students and teachers to comfort them. Help us all to use kind words and think about how important other people are. Help us love each other like you love us. Protect everyone inside of this school from anything bad happening.

Gym

Dear God, you made us! Thank you for our minds and bodies. Let us learn how to take care of ourselves so we are strong and healthy. Use the time in the gym to also help us know how to get along with other people. It's important to know how to win and how to lose well. Show students how to do that and use teachers and coaches to help them practice this. Keep everyone safe. Help students not to yell or say bad things about other students. Guide students to encourage each other.

Cafeteria

Dear Jesus, Students and teachers get to eat in here. Thank you for food and things to drink. Help students to be good friends. Help them look for people who may be alone and sit beside them and talk to them. Help students talk about nice things and not use bad words. Help the food to make the bodies and minds strong so students can be all you want them to be.

Music Rooms

Dear God, you love music. The Bible is full of examples. As students and teachers make music in this room, help them think about you. Lead them to know how much you love them and teach them how to believe in Jesus. Let their songs be played for you as they know you. Encourage students to work hard and see their potential and how You may want to use music in their life.

Art Rooms

Dear Jesus, You created everything. You make things beautiful and you are such a good artist. As students create things in this room, help them know you are the Master Creator. Help them understand you made them. They are wonderfully made and loved so much by you. Allow students to work through things they are thinking and feeling as they do artwork in here. Put adults in their lives who can help them.

Library

God, thank you for books. The best book of all is the Bible and all of it is true. Lead adults to only pick good books to be in this library. Keep books that are bad from being in here. Encourage students to learn to read. Help those who struggle be able to read easily. As students learn to read, help each one to get a Bible of their own to read. Teach them your truth as they read the Bible. Show them how to believe in You!

Parking Lot

Thank you, God, for adults who bring students to and from school. Thank you for every bus driver. Keep everyone safe as they travel from home to school. Encourage students to listen and obey on the bus. Guide the bus drivers to see what's important and handle anything that may harm someone. As students get in a car or on a bus, help them feel encouraged and have someone to talk to about their day at school.
